

PSALM 23

Psalm 23 | Week 3

March 3, 2024 // Ryan Pearce

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Share about a time you had to follow a guide. What was that like? Where were you going?
2. Re-read Psalm 23. What picture does the Psalm paint for us of how the Lord leads us?
3. Where are some of the places God has led you in your life? How did you discern God was leading you?
4. Ryan said that God leads us on Right Paths. What characterizes a right path? Why?
5. God's reputation is on the line when he leads. Why might this be the case? What is the value of people watching how and where God leads us?
6. Where is God inviting you to stop? To cry out? To follow him again?
7. Pray for God to lead you on His path.

COMMIT TO MEMORY:

He guides me on the right paths for his name's sake. Psalm 23:3

PRAYER:

Share prayer requests and pray for one another. Remind each other to read/follow along the daily devotions during Lent ON THE NEW CPC APP from Psalm 23.
